Key considerations.

Please carefully check the routing and account numbers provided here. PMRS cannot be responsible for incorrect submissions, and it can take an additional 60 days to correct mistakes.

If appropriate, you are welcome but not required to include a photocopy of a voided check with this form.

PMRS issues monthly annuity payments to be credited to accounts on the last business day of each month and is not responsible for your financial institution's policies and practices for making funds available.

It can take up to 60 days to enter, validate, and effect changes in direct deposit information. It is crucial that you submit written notice to PMRS at least 60 days in advance of anticipated changes.
